IFP School has just been awarded the 2022 HappyIndexAtSchool® label.
The School is thus amongst the engineering schools in France offering the best student experience.

Launched in 2020, this label is awarded by the platform ChooseMyCompany. It evaluates student satisfaction based on five criteria: quality of facilities and respect for the environment, academic teaching, student life, close ties with companies and confidence in the future.

The students of the 2021class enrolled in the applied-training programs completed the survey during the month of September 2021. They recommend the School with 91.3% and give it an average of 4.25/5.
